

The Phantom of The Opera at the Royal Albert Hall trailer transcript

[Audio: Overture (From 'The Phantom of The Opera' Motion Picture)]

The screen is dark, text on screen reads 'The world's greatest love story'. The text is animated and 'shatters' on screen.

A series of clips play. We then see a hand holding a mask, a character on stage with her arms in the air. Three characters stood together, one being the Phantom and the other two females in white dresses, one being a wedding dress. The cast on stage, in ball gowns dancing. Another clip of a female character with her arms in the air looking as though she is screaming.

A high pitch scream is then heard. Followed by a series of clips of a chandelier looking as though it is falling.

The screen is dark, text on screen reads 'In celebration of 25 years'. The text is animated and 'shatters' on screen.

A clip shows the Phantom on stage with a female character. The stage is filled with fog with dim lighting. Followed by a clip of a male and female character kissing.

The screen is dark, text on screen reads 'Cameron Mackintosh's unique and spectacular staging'. The text is animated and 'shatters' on screen.

The screen is dark, text on screen reads 'Of Andrew Lloyd Webber's'. The text is animated and 'shatters' on screen.

A clip of The Phantom and a female character is seen on screen facing one another, followed by her turning away.

The screen is dark, text on screen reads 'Phantom of The Opera'. The text is animated and 'shatters' on screen.

The screen is dark, text on screen reads 'At the Royal Albert Hall'. The text is animated and 'shatters' on screen.

A series of clips showing The Phantom and the female character, singing and moving round stage and embracing one another.

The screen is dark, text on screen reads 'In cinemas Sun 03 & Tue 05 Nov'. The text is animated and 'shatters' on screen.

A series of clips showing The Phantom and the female character, singing and moving round stage and embracing one another.

The screen is dark, the mask appears on screen followed by an animation of it shattering. Text then appears that reads 'The Phantom of The Opera'.

The promotional artwork is then shown on screen with text that reads 'The Phantom of The Opera at the Royal Albert Hall.' 'In cinemas Sun 03 & Tue 05 Nov'. The mask and The Royal Albert Hall are seen on the artwork.

ends