

A Squash and a Squeeze transcript

A series of clips play showing the cast on stage throughout the production. We see animals as puppets and the cast singing acting and dancing on stage. We also see a series of clips of the audience laughing and joining in.

A four-star review appears on screen 'Surreal for kids – The Stage'.

Another review appears on screen 'Ingenious puppetry and jolly performances – The Guardian'.

Another review appears on screen 'Delightful, organised chaos – Everything Theatre'.

Another review appears on screen 'A heartwarming & hilarious adventure – Curtain Call Review'.

The show artwork appears on screen showing an illustration of a lady in a field with different farm animals stood around her. A man is sat on a rock and a house is seen behind them. Text on screen reads 'A Little Angle Theatre and Lowry Co-Production', 'A musical adaptation of the bestselling book', 'Julia Donaldson & Axel Scheffler', 'A Squash and a Squeeze'.
